Guidelines for essay

The common application for the Timberlane Regional High School Senior Scholarship Program requires students to write an essay. The essay must be type written using MLA format. The best essays are succinct and offer a “voice” to characterize you as an individual.

Discuss in 250 to 500 words the following:

Describe your most meaningful achievements and how they relate to your field of study and your future goals.

Notice to scholarship applicants:

Before turning in this application make sure your name does not appear on any pages except the first page. Please make sure you have supplied all the information requested. Also, include with your application:

- 1. Completed application and required essay.

Thank you.
